

Major in English and...

You'll have resume-building
opportunities:

- design and edit a literary journal
- read your poems and stories at open mics
- learn research and information literacy skills
- network with grads at alumni roundtables
- meet writers at visiting author events
- lead others as an LAS Peak Ambassador

Most English majors take a mix of in-person and online courses

...but you can take your courses all online or all in person if you choose.

Option 1: English BA

Take 5
core courses:

- Reading with Theory
- Writing with Purpose
- Language Systems
- Reading with the Past
- Pathways with the English Degree

Pick 1 from Genres & Media:

Courses include:

- Intro to Literary Genres
- 19th Century British Literature
- Rhetoric of the Contemporary Family
- American Literature 1945-Present

Pick 1 from Craft in Context:

Courses include:

- Writing Poetry
- Writing Fiction
- Writing Creative Non-Fiction
- Legal Writing

Pick 1 from Traditions & Transformations:

Courses include:

- 17th & 18th Century British Literature
- Global Perspectives
- Fairy Tales
- African American Literature

Pick 1 from Literacy Platforms & Textual Cultures:

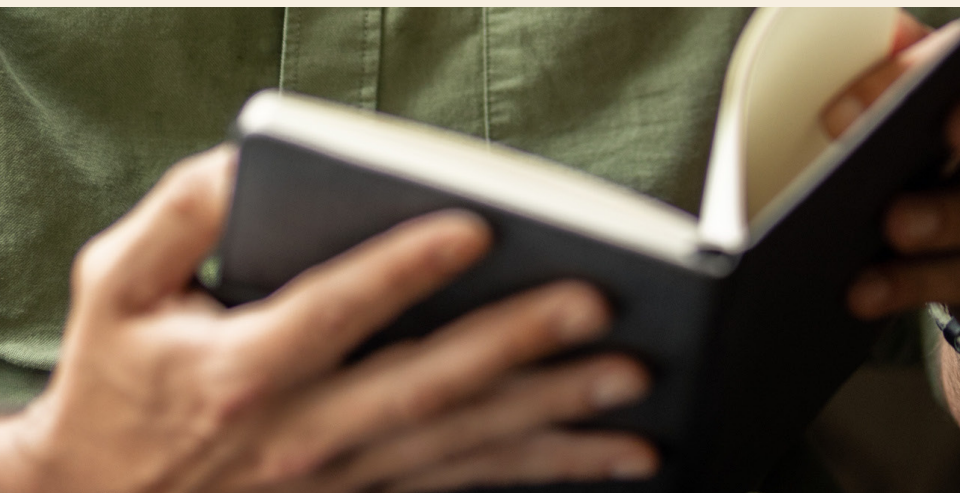

Courses include:

- British Literature before 1600
- riverrun Literary Journal
- American Literature 1820-1900
- Poetry for the People
- Teaching Writing

Pick 1 from Dynamic & Unfolding World:

Courses include:

- U.S. Writing in the World
- British Literature After 1900
- Women Writers
- Cultural Rhetorics of South Africa

Finish your degree with 2 Senior Seminars and 1 elective course:

Seminars include:

- Graphic Novels from the Global South
- Edgar Allan Poe
- Rhetoric of Social Media
- Slow Rhetorics
- Mystery Crime Detection
- Helen Hunt Jackson
- Antidiscrimination Rhetorics

English majors become...

- researchers
- grant writers
- lawyers
- teachers
- entrepreneurs
- copy editors
- literacy specialists
- librarians
- & enter many other professions

Option 2: English Online

Take 3
core
courses:

- Intro to Literary Genres
- Reading with Theory
- Writing with Purpose

Pick 1 from Literature:

Courses include:

- American Literature 1820-1900
- American Literature 1945-Present
- Scribbling Women

Pick 1 from Creative Writing:

Courses include:

- Intro to Multiple Genres
- Intro to Writing Fiction

Pick 1 from Rhetoric:

Courses include:

- Intro to Rhetorical Studies
- Cultural Rhetorics of South Africa
- Legal Writing
- Slow Rhetorics

Pick 1 Inclusiveness Elective:

Courses include:

- Global Perspectives
- African American Literature
- Antidiscrimination Rhetorics
- Hip Hop Poetics

Take a Sustainability Elective:

- English and Sustainability

Pick 1 additional elective...

then finish your degree
with a Senior Seminar!

Seminars include:

- Genre Studies
- Contemporary Poetry
- Rhetoric of Social Media
- Topics in Public Rhetorics

Add an English
minor

in Creative Writing,
Literature,
or Rhetoric

Visit
uccs.edu/english

Contact
Department Chair
Dr. Steve Carter at scarter2@uccs.edu with questions or to learn more